

MINOR PERFORMER’S CONTRACT: PRODUCTION POLICIES

WITHDRAWING FROM A PRODUCTION AND REFUNDS: If you withdraw from a production before the cast list is posted, you are entitled to a full refund. If you withdraw from a school season production for any reason after the cast list is posted and the role has accepted, no refund is given. In the case of summer productions, there is a one-week grace-period after the cast list is posted to either confirm or deny involvement in the production with a full return of fees. If you withdraw from a production, you will not be allowed to audition for the next production you are eligible for unless excused by the MYACT Board for extenuating circumstances. It is the performer’s responsibility to inform MYACT of your circumstances within one week of withdrawing from a production in order to be cleared for the next audition.

ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS: Each performer is required to attend all scheduled rehearsals and performances. All conflicts must be communicated to the MYACT staff. Even if conflicts are reported in advance, be aware that missing rehearsal may prevent you from being staged into scenes and musical numbers. Rehearsal schedules are subject to change to make the most productive use of time. Some cast members may be asked to participate in all performances when roles are not double-cast or technical support is needed. Production weeks are the last two weeks prior to performances and attendance is mandatory, no exceptions will be made without the previous written consent of the Director. Rehearsals will run long and late into the evening during the immediate week prior to show time, so please be prepared for this.

COSTUMES: Performers are responsible for the care and treatment of their own costume (s). There is to be no eating or drinking in costume, with the exception of water. Costumes are to be hung up immediately when not being worn. Performers are not to play in costume or trade costumes. Failure to treat costumes with respect will result in disciplinary actions. In most cases, Performers are required to provide their own undergarments and shoes; the Costumer will inform the Performer of their requirements. No changes can be made to your outward physical appearance once a role is accepted unless previously cleared by the Director and Costumer.

BEHAVIOR: Performers are expected and required to obey the following behavioral policies as well as the MYACT Acceptable Behavior Policy: Show respect for yourself and those around you, be polite to all, come rehearsals and performances with an open-mind, positive attitude and a willingness to work with others, leave all negative energy and thoughts outside, be involved, and mind the Production Team members – if a problem arises, bring it up with a Production Team member to be dealt with immediately. Any rule breaking will result in discipline appropriate to the transgression and/or dismissal from the program without a refund of fees.

GENERAL POLICIES:

- Notify staff regarding any special circumstances or medical requirements you (or your child/charge) might have.
- All cast rosters are for specific production use only. Any other use other than MYACT purposes is STRICTLY PROHIBITED.
- Participation in the full audition process is required to be cast (meetings, applicable callbacks, etc.).
- Tuition payment is required or a scholarship must be arranged in advance in order to audition.
